

Department of Spanish and Portuguese
Portuguese 1,2,3

Required Texts: Anna Klobucka et al., Ponto de Encontro, Textbook and Workbook
(Students can choose between the Brazilian Portuguese or European Portuguese versions of the workbook).

Course Description:

The first year Portuguese program at UCSB is designed to introduce students to linguistic and cultural structures necessary for basic communication in Portuguese. Students are expected to learn to use Portuguese for communication in real, meaningful situations.

Teaching Philosophy:

The course follows a communicative approach. The course is taught entirely in Portuguese while the textbook contains explanations and instructions in English. Grammar is not taught explicitly, but students are expected to study the material before coming to class. Class time is to be used primarily for communication practice. Portuguese will be spoken in class 99% of the time.

Attendance: Due to the nature of language learning in general, attendance to class is mandatory since it is absolutely critical for developing communicative abilities in Portuguese. At the same time, it is understood that things such as illness, weddings, funerals, job interviews, etc. may prevent your attendance. Therefore, you will be allowed a total of three unexcused absences during the quarter. These are not free days, so plan accordingly.

Starting with the fourth unexcused absence, regardless of the reasons for the first three, ONE percentage point will be subtracted from the final calculated course grade for every absence. Late arrivals and early departures may also count as absences. BE PROMPT!

Official documented excuses are verifiable: doctor's notes and/or hospital bills and university sponsored and official athletic excuses. A note that does not meet the above stated requirements is not an official excuse.

Student Performance: The student performance portion of the final grade is based upon attendance, effort (quizzes, daily participation in class) and quality of response in class. Your in-class participation involves a number of variables, including, but not limited, to the following:

- Your use of Portuguese in the classroom
- Your participation in all class activities
- Your cooperation during group- and pair-work
- Your respect and attitude toward the instructor and your peers

Homework: Reading assignments in the grammatical section are assigned by the instructor at the end of every class period. Students are expected to do the homework (usually from the workbook) and readings before coming to class. Late homework will not be accepted.

Compositions: The first draft will be completed in class and it is worth 60% of the grade. The final version must be typed-written (double spaced) and it is worth 40% of the grade. In Portuguese 2 & 3 the use of a dictionary is not permitted for the in-class compositions.

Testing and Grading: In this course students will take three chapter tests and a final exam. All of the exam dates are included in the syllabus. There are NO makeup exams except under extraordinary circumstances, and those must be approved by the Lower Division Coordinator. The final exam will be cumulative and will include a final composition. Speaking will be evaluated on a day to day basis in the classroom.

The grading policy follows. It is important to remember that no grade is “given”. Instead the student earns points which will be objectively calculated on a 100 point scale. There is no extra credit.

Exams: 3@ 16% each	48%
Homework	5%
Compositions 2 @ 6% each	12%
Student performance	10%
Final exam	25% (comprehensive)

The following are the cutoff points for each grade:

A+ 98	B+ 88	C+ 78	D+ 68
A 93	B 83	C 73	D 63
A- 90.0	B- 80.0	C- 70.0	D- 60.0

Pass/No Pass Option: Students fulfilling the language requirement are strongly discouraged from taking Spanish Classes Pass/No Pass. A grade of C or better is required to pass with this option and no student with a final percentage lower than 73 will be assigned a grade of Pass.

No Make-up exam policy: No make-up exams will be given for personal events, including weddings, graduations, interviews, etc.
